25X12. Legal Protection for CIA Officers

On Thursday, 13 September, the Criminal Justice Subcommittee of House Judiciary marked up and reported H.R. 6212, a bill that would add Intelligence Community personnel and probation officers to the list of federal officers who are protected by federal criminal law. Although there is no opposition to including Intelligence Community personnel within this coverage, the Republicans may attempt to use this bill as a vehicle to force a House floor vote on an unrelated issue, a federal death sentence amendment.
